Criminal Conviction
Disclosure Form

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

If you indicated in the Owner Disclosures section of the Cannabis Cultivation Annual License Application (CDFA Form CDFA-LIC-001) that you have had criminal convictions, fill out and attach the Criminal Conviction Disclosure Form (CDFA Form CDFA-LIC-004). A conviction means a plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere. Convictions dismissed under sections 1203.4, 1203.4a, and 1203.41a of the Penal Code or the equivalent non-California law shall also be disclosed. Juvenile adjudications and traffic infractions do not need to be included. For each conviction, provide the following:

1. The date of conviction;
2. Date(s) of incarceration, if applicable;
3. Date(s) of probation, if applicable;
4. Date(s) of parole, if applicable;
5. A detailed description of the offense for which the owner was convicted; and
6. A statement of rehabilitation for each conviction. The statement of rehabilitation is to be written by the owner and shall contain all evidence that the owner would like the California Department of Food and Agriculture to consider that demonstrates the owner's fitness for licensure. Supporting evidence may be attached to the statement of rehabilitation and may include, but is not limited to, a certificate of rehabilitation under section 4852.01 of the Penal Code, or dated letters of reference from employers, instructors, or professional counselors that contain valid contact information for the individual providing the reference.

If there are multiple convictions, provide a separate completed disclosure form for each conviction.
